UDairy Creamery Boosts Downtown Wilmington

DSHA joined Governor John Carney, Wilmington Mayor Mike Purzycki, and the University of Delaware community recently to celebrate the opening of a second UDairy Creamery location at 815 North Market Street in Wilmington. The storefront is owned by the Buccini/Pollin Group, which received funding from the Downtown Development District Program for work on the building.

Governor Carney noted that the DDD program is a vital part of how Delaware has worked to strengthen neighborhoods and downtown areas. The DDD program statewide has invested $17.7 million in grant rebates leveraging $329 million in private investment.

Register Today for Homeownership Expo on June 10

In celebration of Homeownership Month and NeighborWorks Week, NCALL Research and DSHA will host the 7th Annual Homeownership EXPO on Saturday, June 10, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Delaware Technical Community College (Terry Campus), 100 Campus Drive, Building 400.

Pre-register for the event and you'll receive a free tri-merged credit report and consultation with a housing counselor or financial coach. You'll also have an opportunity to visit local industry partners – lenders, real estate agents, USDA, Habitat for Humanity and many, many more.

There will be door prizes plus face-painting and crafts for the kids while you learn about homeownership options!

Visit www.ncall.org to register as a visitor or a vendor, or call 302-678-9400 for more information.

Emergency Mortgage Assistance

Do you know someone who is behind on mortgage payments by 90 days or more? There may be help through the Delaware Emergency Mortgage Assistance Program, or DEMAP.

To qualify, you must be unemployed or have a reduction in hours due to the economy, illness, or injury. DEMAP has helped about 665 Delaware families since it began in 2007. Click for more information.
