of the Point in Time Count is used to help improve our local and state-wide response to this crisis.

Each year, hundreds of people throughout Delaware help make the Point in Time Count a success. Volunteers will help interview people and families who are sleeping outdoors, or in emergency shelters.

To sign up to volunteer, please follow this link and complete the registration form: 2018 Delaware Point in Time \(PIT\) Count Volunteer Registration.

Please also forward this to anyone over the age of 18 who may be interested in assisting.

After registering, you will be contacted by Housing Alliance Delaware in January with details about your volunteer assignment and duties. In the meantime, if you have questions about volunteering for the PIT, please contact Aja White, Continuum of Care Program Manager, at awhite@housingalliance.org.
