What: Homeownership Expo

When: June 9

Where: Del Tech Community College- Terry Campus

Time: 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m

DelawareHousingSearch.org Has New Look, Resources

Delaware's free housing locator service, DelawareHousingSearch.org, has a new look, is now fully mobile responsive, and has additional resources on veteran and disaster housing after its recent relaunch.

The locator service is available online at the website or through a toll-free call center (877-428-8844) that operates 9 a.m. – 8 p.m. Monday-Friday.

The new design makes it easier and faster for residents to search and simpler for landlords to list their units. Listings are updated regularly and connect to an interactive map. They can include photos and details about accessibility features, utilities, appliances, pet friendliness and area amenities.

For landlords, it's free to post and track inventory. All types of rental housing can be advertised: market-rate, subsidized, single- and multifamily, duplexes, condos, manufactured housing, assisted-living facilities and even rooms for rent. Listings can be quickly removed immediately from public view when rented to reduce unwanted calls, then quickly reactivated when available again.

The site is a free search and listing resource supported by DSHA and other partners, including Delaware Health and Social Services; New Castle, Kent and Sussex County governments; the Delaware Emergency Management Agency and Delaware Citizen Corps; PennDel AHMA; the Wilmington Housing Authority;

and the City of Wilmington.
