Reinventing Our Communities Conference – October 1-3, Baltimore, Maryland

When it comes to thinking “outside the box” on economic mobility, philanthropic leader and author Ben Hecht leads the way. He will be joining the roster of keynote speakers at the 2018 Reinventing Our Communities Conference: Investing in Opportunity.
This year’s ROC will be held October 1–3, 2018, at the Hilton Baltimore, Baltimore, MD.

At ROC, Ben will be part of a plenary panel discussing disruptive philanthropy and innovative strategies that are changing the status quo.

ROC 2018, held for the first time in Baltimore, is cohosted by the Federal Reserve Banks of Philadelphia and Richmond, and Johns Hopkins 21st Century Cities Initiative. ROC conferences, organized by the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia since 2004, have become must-attend biennial events for experts, thought leaders, and policymakers in community development to discuss strategies to “reinvent America’s communities.”
