Along with the free trolley bus, downtown shops will feature fun, colorful and lively demonstrations and performances by artists, musicians, dance and theatre artists, literary and culinary arts year-round, both inside shops in cold weather and outdoors in warm weather months.

WSFS Bank Representative and DDP volunteer Deb Edwards will provide informative trolley narration for the loop. "Increasing fun and playfulness downtown, while providing more customer opportunities for our downtown businesses is a win-win," Deb said.

Anyone interested in volunteering to be a Trolley Ambassador, Snack Provider, Roving Event Photographer, or Event Runner can visit Tiny.cc/DoverVolunteer or contact Diane Laird at 302-678-2940 or Diane@DowntownDoverPartnership.com.

Artists and musicians that would like to participate in future First Fridays should contact Jean Francis at jean.beyonddimensions@gmail.com.

The inaugural trolley ride is sponsored by Dover's Rotary clubs: Dover Capital City, Dover Colonial and Dover Downtown. First Friday's 2019 is funded jointly by the Downtown Dover Partnership (DDP) and Destination Downtown Dover (D3), along with a generous grant from NCALL/Restoring Central Dover.
